MISS BROWNE AGAIN BEATEN AT TENNIS

Loses to Miss Bjurstedt a Plainfield—Throckmorton Repeats Over Johnston.

By DANIEL.

Tennis history made at Utica last Friday and Saturday repeated itself at the Plainfield Country Club yesterday after-Harold A. Throckmorton once defeated William M. Johnston of San Francisco, former national cham-pion, at 6-3, 8-6. Miss Molla Bjur-stedt. American title holder, again dem-oustrated her superiority over Miss Mary K. Browne of Los Angeles, 6—1, 6—4. In a doubles match which topped off the programme Throckmorton and Fred Alexander defeated Johnston and Karl H. Behr, 2—6, 6—2, 9—7. About 700 persons saw the competitions, which were held for the benefit of the United States National January Tanaka States National Lawn Tennis Association's ambulance fund.

Major interest centred in the contest between Miss Bjurstedt and Miss Browne. The girl from beyond the Rockies proved that she still was off her game and that that she still was off her game and that when she settles down she probably will defeat the Norwegian miss more often than Miss Bjurstedt will score over her. Despite the greater efficiency of Miss Bjurstedt's game yesterday, Miss Browne's exhibition was prettier to watch. The Californian played a typically American game, with a free, graceful swing to her strokes and a dash in her style. Combine that with a dash in her style. Combine that with a winning personality and you know why some of the onlookers hoped that Miss Browns would turn the tables on her

Norse Girl Starts Well.

The first set was all Miss Bjurstedt She got her powerful forehand strokes working in short order and reeled off two games before Miss Browns could even set herself for a determined effort. In the third game the girl from the West allowed Miss Bjurstedt to go to the front again, but with the score 50—love against her, Miss Browne rallied. With a suc-cession of remarkable backhand drives she evened the count and then smashed her way to victory after the score had gone to deuce twice.

There was greater satisfaction for Miss Browne in that she had broken through her opponent's service. However, it was only a bull in Miss Bjurstedt's march of victory. She won the next two games rather easily, but in the sixth Miss Browne again worked it to deuce twice before the Norse girl tri-umphed. Miss Bjurstedt finished off the

The second set saw Miss Browne play an entirely different game. Her back-hand was superb and there was alto-gether more depth and accuracy to her ves. Yet she seemed to rely too much speed, while Miss Bjurstedt used her on speed, while Miss Bjurstedt used her head as well as her power at all times, and on that score alone won. Miss Browne opened service in that set and each won her service until it was 2—all.

each won her service until it was 2—all. Then Miss Bjurstedt broke through Miss Browne's service and it was 3—2.

With the score 5—2 against her, Miss Browne showed her true fighting spirit. She broke through Miss Bjurstedt's eervice and added the next game on her own. The last game was a thriller. Miss Bjurstedt worked up a lead of 40—30. It was point, set and match, but again the courage of Miss Browne came to the front. She made it deuce. Then ensued a long series of railles from deep. ensued a long series of railles from deep court, in which an out by Miss Browne finally gave Miss Bjurstedt her last point and the match.

Johnston was bothered particularly by Throckmorton's low, short chop over the repeatedly and Johnston seemed to be able to develop no defence against it. Throckmorton's low backhand also was in fine working order and his cross court drives invariably found their mark. He showed a fine change of pace and a service that came at Johnston like a shot. In the fourth game of the first set Throckmorton brought off two service aces on first balls and added a third ace after Johnston had won his ne point of the game.

Johnston put up a rattling good fight the second set after he had broken trough Throckmorton's service in the 23. In the junior final Kemmerer defeated Frank T. Anderson of Brooklyn, 4-6, 6-3, 6-4, 6-1. Kemmerer defeated Ben Letson in the second round. Richards won from Anderson in the boys final, at 6-1, 4-6, 4-6, 6-4. At that stage Throckmorton fell the first set, despite the fact that he had just driven a "flivver" all the way from Greenwich, Conn. Behr's vim died down the second set and Alexander began ocome to the fore. The third set saw behaston scintillate for a while, with Behr going strongly again, but Throck-morton got his second wind and went through the opposition like a whirlwind.

Singles-Miss Molla Bjurstedt defeated Miss May K. Browne. 6-1, 6-4. Singles-Harold A. Throckmorton defeated Milliam M. Johnston, 6-3, 5-4. Bookies-Harold A. Throckmorton and Fred Dezander defeated William M. Johnston and latt H. Behr, 2-6, 6-2, 8-7. The point cores.

Caldwell's Pitching and Pipp's Batting Feature Last Game in West.

Dernorr, July 22.-In a well played thirteen inning game featured by Caldwell's fine pitching and Pipp's batting the Yankees took the measure of the Tigers at Navin Field this afternoon by score of 7 to 5. After the game the New Yorkers made a hurried exit for the East, with a record of eight victories and ten defeats during their second invasion of the West. The Yankees came away in third place and returned home in fifth, but in a position to regain their previous standing by a few victories at home. EVERS LACKS DASH

Caldwell and Boland were the oppos-ing pitchers at the start of the game and neither went the entire route, but their exits were not due to poor pitching. Boland after a bad start kept the Yankees well in hand and Caldwell was an enigma after some poor fielding had put him in bad in the third inning. Sets Season's Mark by Defeat-The Tigers scored three runs in this lifning after Peck had fumbled with one out, and from this inning to the eleventh they could not score. Then George Burns got a fluky hit which landed just behind the infield after two were out and it denied Culdwe'll a victory.

League scoring record for the season by Nick Cullon came on in the twelfth, as defeating Philadelphia 20 to 6 to-day. Donovan figured Caldwell had done mough, and Nick set the Tigers down in Bagby, who was knocked out of the box by Philadelphia on Friday, shut the Athletics out for six innings, when he retired with the score 11 to 0 in his order in the two innings which he pitched. Ehmke replaced Boland about the same time, and it was against him the defeat was registered. Pipp's double, favor. Every possible event that will prove of interest and benefit to the men in the regiment will be held. some time ago when Matt Halpin declared that if the Metropolitan Association held its senior games as championships the New York A. C. would not take part in them. The first public demonstration of the club's attitude came in the water sports of the Rye Beach Club last Saturday.

One of the events was billed as the letic field with at least an eight lap as seconds behind the donor's yacht.

Not even in races over the short triangular course in Manhasset Bay was such a thrilling finish witnessed as star, who now is coach at Northwestern, that which marked the result of the next
